

To preserve our nation's freedom, we need MORE controls on media ownership, not LESS, as you are proposing. Allowing wealthy corporations and individuals to control more and more of our mass media is a direct contradiction to freedom of speech for most Americans. Even Herbert Hoover didn't want commercial mass media!